

Ann Reis

*Director of Operations
Clark Construction*

Ann Reis, Director of Operations at fast growing Clark Construction on Bainbridge Island, brings 25 years of experience to her work and is an asset to the company. Using her impressive technological skills from her operational management experience, and soft skills from her non-profit work, she is able to greatly enhance the employee, vendor and client experience.

At Clark Construction, we build amazing things! Our projects range from home remodels to multimillion dollar commercial projects. We are an employee-owned company that supports its employees with tremendous benefits and ongoing professional development.

Ann has always looked for positions where she can truly make a difference in people's lives. Clark's pledge to giving back to the community and supporting our employees by committing to diversity and inclusiveness and to offering outstanding pay and benefits is the most generous she has seen. "I am proud to be a part of this incredible team!"
